VOL. 25. RENO, WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA. TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 14, 1886. NO. 144.

Rules for Highway.

Country Gentleman.

1. Make the public roads neat and smooth, and pleasant and profitable to travelers and in driving to market.
 2. Never throw rubbish of any kind into highways in order to get rid of it, nor deposit cord-wood, logs or timber at roadsides to frighten passing horses.
 3. All owners who build their houses facing square the public roads should show at least the same respect to these roads that they do to their own fields by excluding all weeds.
 4. Remove all loose stones from the wheel-track once a month, and all fixed stones which strike and break the wheels, jar the loads, rack the harness and tire the horses.
 5. Where fixed stones cannot be removed, cover them well with gravel or other road material.
 6. Remember that a fixed stone may strike different wheels a thousand times like a sledge-hammer, and cause a hundred dollars of damage. To remove it might cost five cents.
 7. Never make a highway of mud, suds or soft material scraped from the side ditches, which is worked into deep mud in wet weather, but draw them into the barn-yard for the compost heap.
 8. Where the road bed has not a dry bottom cut a ditch in the middle three feet deep, and length-wise with it, with side escape ditches at depressions, and fill it with gravel or broken stone, coarse below and finer near the top.
 9. Plant shade trees three or four rods apart along the line, to allow air to circulate, sun to shine and mud to dry.
 10. Keep the roadside smooth, mow the grass for hay, and thus secure a good track when the center of the road is encumbered with impassable snow-drifts in winter.
 11. In windy places make the windward road fences of barb wire, to prevent the accumulation of drifts of snow.
 12. Never make the public highway a barnyard, nor leave wagons, plows and machines to encumber the road.
 13. Never endanger those who travel by driving unmanageable or fractious horses to frighten and annoy other horses. Sell the unruly animals or put them to steady home labor with other horses.
 14. Never drive horses across a railway without first looking both ways, or, if in the dark, without listening. It is better to take this care one hundred times than to be crushed by a locomotive once by its neglect.
 15. Never keep a noisy, barking dog, to bark at quiet passengers or passing teams, to terrify horses and cause them to run away, upset carriages and break limbs.
- The observance of these injunctions will give smooth, hard, safe highway roads for farmers and travelers to pass over, bring their farms nearer to market, increase the value of their farms, make peace to neighbors and attach boys and young men to the country.

The Democratic party of Illinois has finally accomplished the difficult feat of setting the words of "Wealth of the Green" to the tune of "Die Wacht am Rhein."

The Maine Campaign.

GARDINER, September 11.—The last rally of the Republican campaign in the State was held in the "capacious Coliseum" in this city to-night. In the course of his remarks, Blaine said: "It is worth the while, in this last hour for discussion standing as we are on the eve of the election, to recall the peculiarities of this campaign, for certainly the general arguments submitted to the people have been, on the side of the opposition, filled with contradictions, not to say absurdities. The Democrats have apparently been unable to define their position on the leading national issues of protection. They have been timid and irresolute to the last degree, occasionally putting forward a rank free trade argument through some of their speakers, and recalling or qualifying it through one of their leading organs the succeeding day, their organ arguing in Maine for the Morrissou Tariff bill as a whole, and yet afraid to touch any one of the many features of that bill, in which the commercial and agricultural and manufacturing interests of Maine are injured or destroyed. [Applause.] The most learned doctor of Salamanca would be unable to find any thread of consistency, any line of logic, any dash of common sense in the mode in which the Democratic party has conducted its campaign on that great issue. They seem, indeed, to have kept up a mere show of fight on behalf of their own party, while depending in reality for any possible chance of victory upon the diversion or distraction caused by the third party, and that third party in turn has exhibited as striking peculiarities as the Democrats themselves in their mode of conducting the campaign. General Neal Dow, who has for the last quarter of a century stood for two continents as the great witness of the value and effectiveness of prohibition, now declares that for thirty years it has not done a bit of good in the suppression of the liquor traffic in Maine. [Laughter.] General Dow has thus apparently been willing to set at naught his own testimony throughout this long period in order to achieve a victory against the Republicans. If there be consistency in political action, if there be honor and fair dealing among men, the Republican party and its candidates exhibits both in this campaign, which, so far as I have had a say, is now closed. I bid you members good night. [Tremendous applause.]

The Director of the Mint has issued the following circular in regard to the issue of minor coins: Five cent nickel pieces and one cent bronze pieces to be forwarded in the order of the application, from the Mint of the United States at Philadelphia, to points reached by the Adams Express Company free of transportation charges, in sums of $20 or multiples thereof, upon the receipt and collection by the Superintendent of that Mint, or draft on New York or Philadelphia, payable to his order.

In answer to an inquiry by the Collector of Customs at San Francisco, Acting Secretary Fairchild of the Treasury Department decides that sugar-cane is not entitled to free entry under the provision in the Hawaiian reciprocity treaty for "vegetables," or for "Mucovodo, brown and all other unrefined sugar," but is dutiable at the rate of 10 per cent. ad valorem as a raw, unmanufactured article, under section 2513 of the revised statutes as contained in the Act of March 3, 1883.

The issue of the standard silver dollars from the Mints during the week ended September 11th, was $661,253. The issue during the corresponding period of last year was $599,395.

A well-known citizen of Chicago, who was in the City of Mexico at the time, confirms the slanderous reports about Sedgwick's debauch, and says it is much worse than first reported.

The civil service rules are to be still further amended. They have already been so battered and disfigured that they can hardly be identified even by their most intimate friends.

DEMOCRATIC STATE PLATFORM.

The Democratic party of the State of Nevada, through its representatives in convention assembled, at Elko, on the 9th day of September, 1885, reaffirms its hearty indorsement of the declaration of the principles adopted by the National Democratic party at the city of Chicago in 1884, among which, upon the question of coinage and currency are the following plain statements of Democratic faith and the principles upon which the party appended to the suffrages of the people of the several States in the late Presidential campaign, to-wit:

"We believe in honest money—the gold and silver coinage of the Constitution, and a circulating medium convertible into such money without loss."

We therefore demand that good faith shall be observed with the people by the Democratic Administration, by religiously adhering to the money plank, as it does to every other plank of the Chicago platform.

President Cleveland, in his wise conservative and patriotic administration of our public affairs, both foreign and domestic, challenges our highest admiration, except in following the beaten path of his Republican predecessors and the policy of the Republican party on the silver question, in disregard of the cherished principles of the National Democratic party.

We demand of the Administration at Washington, that it shall second the efforts of the Democratic Representatives in Congress to give the people free coinage of silver, notwithstanding the formidable combinations existing between the gold rings, National Banks and the National Republican party in California in refusing to insert a silver plank in their platform, deserves the condemnation of the silver-producing people of the mining regions of the Pacific Coast.

We endorse the policy of applying the surplus in the National Treasury, as fast as it may accumulate, to the payment of the National debt, retiring as rapidly as practicable the National Bank circulation, and the direct issue by the National Government of legal tender Treasury notes, gold and silver coin and coin certificates.

We arraign the Republican party before the bar of an enlightened public opinion for its high crime committed against the public peace, and against the best interests of the white laboring classes of both sexes, by its inviting and encouraging the influx of Asiatic hordes to our shores under treaty stipulations and under the crazy party shibboleth of "The Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man," until there are planted among the people of the Pacific States and Territories, like so many leeches sucking the life-blood of our substance, one hundred and fifty thousand Chinese coolies.

We demand the immediate abrogation of the Burlingame treaty, and the total suppression of Chinese immigration to American soil, and we favor legislation providing for the deportation of all Chinese in the United States, and we recommend the exclusive patronage of white labor and its products.

The introduction by Senator Fair of his Chinese Restriction bill and his success in passing the same deserves the approval of the entire people of the Pacific Coast.

A proper regard for the welfare of the workingman being inseparably connected with the integrity of our institutions, the laboring classes should be protected in their efforts peaceably to assert their rights when endangered by aggregated capital, or by the importation of foreigners and aliens under contract to perform labor, or by the involuntary or other labor of Chinamen.

We are in favor of liberal wages and free labor. All associations formed for the purpose of developing intelligence, promoting the welfare and protecting the interests of the laborer and mechanic, and to enable them successfully to contend for and maintain their rights by peaceful and efficient means against power and oppressive combinations, should be encouraged and expressly sanctioned by law; and the Democratic party of Nevada is in favor of the enactment of liberal laws fostering and encouraging the formation of co-operative and protective societies among all classes of laboring men.

We approve the action of the Democratic House of Congress in forfeiting and restoring to the public domain for homesteads for actual settlers nearly a hundred millions of acres of unearned lands heretofore granted by Republican Congresses to railroad corporations, and we also approve the Act preventing alien ownership of large tracts of public lands in the United States.

We commend the policy of the present Administration in strictly enforcing the tariff laws, the beneficial effect of which is so happily illustrated by the fact that the great wool growing industry of the country receives more protection now by collecting the whole import duties on wool, than it did under the high tariff of 1867 under the practice by Republican officials of letting foreign wool slip through our custom houses at less than one-half of said duties.

In behalf of the mining industry of this State, and of the miner—the pioneer of civilization on this coast—as well as of the whole people of Nevada, we earnestly recommend to the authorities at Washington the immediate opening and permanent running of the United States Mint at Carson City, to the end that our mines may be relieved from the unnecessary and burdensome expense of shipping their bullion three thousand miles away for market, and we hereby commend the efforts of Senator Fair to accomplish this result.

Generous provision, State and County, should be made for the support of public schools. They are established for the benefit of all our people and should be maintained entirely free from religious or political bias. We believe in thorough and efficient school legislation as will best promote the educational interests of our State.

The depression of our mining interests, a prominent factor in our revenue resources, necessitates the strictest economy in all branches of our government, both State and County, and we demand of all of our public officers that all possible retrenchments be made consistent with the proper discharge of the duties of their several offices.

In common with the Democracy of the country we express our sympathy with Ireland in her great struggle for Home Rule. The friends of liberty throughout the world are deeply interested in the effort, which the supporters of Gladstone and Parnell are now making, to give the right to govern themselves to the long-suffering and greatly wronged Irish people, and we sincerely hope the struggle of Ireland for her just rights shall be crowned with complete success.

Resolved, That in common with the Democracy of the whole country we sincerely lament the loss of the late Vice President of the United States, Thomas A. Hendricks, the honored and trusted leader, whose conciliatory counsel and patriotic teachings have become the common heritage of our common country. We also profoundly deplore that during a brief period of time the nation, and particularly the Democratic party, has suffered the loss of four other eminent citizens in the persons of the gallant leader, George B. McClellan, the pure and wise statesman, Horatio Seymour, the superb hero, General W. A. Field Scott Hancock, and more recently the demise of the discerning statesman, sagacious counselor and profound political philosopher, Samuel J. Tilden.

The Yacht Race.

New York, September 11.—To-day's race has decided upon which side of the Atlantic the America's cup shall stay for at least another year. It resulted in a glorious victory for the Mayflower. When she finished this evening at 8:15:40 the Galatea was two miles astern. The course was twenty miles to leeward and return from Scotland lightship. The race was sailed in a breeze that blew fresh from the northwest for three hours, then falling two points to westward, it fell light, the last hours of the contest being a little better than a drift. The Mayflower only had 8m. 20s. to spare when she crossed the finish line, as the time limit of the race was seven hours. The Galatea was defeated on every point of sailing by the Mayflower. In the run to the outer mark, with spinnakers set, she was beaten 13m. 45s., and in windward work over half an hour. There is great rejoicing among yachtsmen here to-night, while the Bostonians are fairly wild with delight.

Shot His Father.

SPOKANE FALLS (W. T.), Sept. 13.—News has been received here of the murder of Jack Hubbard, Deputy Sheriff, and the killing of Daniel Payne, both by John Payne, a son of the latter. The crime occurred Tuesday last, 70 miles north of this place. Daniel Payne committed a murder in Missouri several years ago and was sentenced to be hanged, but made his escape to this county. His whereabouts became known lately and Hubbard started from here to make the arrest. Payne was captured and Hubbard had left with his prisoner. Young Payne followed them and shot at Hubbard. The bullet struck his father and killed him. The son fired another shot which killed Hubbard. Young Payne escaped.

Corbett, John Wood, John McLean, Thomas Gracey and J. W. Merrick. Third Ward—J. A. Stephens, A. J. McDonnell, L. P. Wardle, W. Pearce, Jacob Young and G. A. Ahern. Fourth Ward—W. McMillan, D. H. Frasar and W. H. Pratt.

ADVANTAGES OF ALFALFA.—A Fort Collins correspondent gives as an apt illustration going to prove the value of alfalfa as a reviver of the soil, aside from its virtue as a forage plant, a fact furnished on the farm of James Culbertson. After nearly exhausting the soil by annual grain cropping, he put a portion of his farm into alfalfa, four years ago. The other day the wheat from five and one-half acres was threshed, and the yield found to be forty-eight bushels per acre, besides twelve bushels of alfalfa seed from plants, which sprang up again after plowing.

ALL INVITED.—A reception will be given Rev. T. P. Bradshaw and family at the Methodist parsonage this evening from 3 to 10 p. m. As this is designed to give an opportunity of becoming acquainted with the new pastor and his family, a cordial invitation is given the citizens of Reno and vicinity to call at their convenience during the hours named.

BOARD OF EQUALIZATION.—The County Commissioners will meet on Monday, September 20th, as a Board of Equalization, and will hear and determine all complaints made in regard to the assessed value of any property in this county. The Board will be in session from time to time until October 1st.

ACROSS THE CONTINENT ON WHEELS.

Arrival of S. G. Spier on a Bicycle—Experiences of the Trip.

The San Francisco Call of the 11th had an interview with the bicyclist who passed through here a week or two ago, on his way across the continent, and gleaned some pretty big yarns from him. The Call says:

S. G. Spier, who claims the championship for long-distance riding arrived in this city on last Thursday evening at 9 o'clock. His principal reason for traversing the continent on a bicycle was to beat the world's record, made by Thomas Stevens in 1884. Mr. Spier is 22 years old, stands five feet eight inches and weighs 150 pounds. He came overland on a 52-inch wheel. He joined the L. A. W. June 3, 1884, and in that year he won the nine-mile race at the Columbia County road championship, in 27 minutes. His fastest mile 2:44 1-5 was made at Troy, N. Y., July 27, 1885 and at Washington, D. C., September, 1881, he made the remarkable run of five miles in 14 minutes and three-quarters of a second.

He has been 100 3/4 days on the road from New York to San Francisco, and has covered 4,000 miles. Mr. Spier asserts that he has ridden the full distance on his bicycle, and as a matter of proof, he carries a book in which each postmaster along the route has recorded his name, and also affixed the official stamp of his office. To several of our local bicyclists it seems astonishing that he managed to make such remarkable time, considering the rough roads he had to ride over, and the excessive heat of a Summer's sun. Spier came by way of Denver and Ogden. He followed the Lake Shore route from New York to Omaha, keeping close to the railroad track throughout the whole distance. He has traveled several hundred miles further than Stevens did on his trip two years ago, having left the main road at one point and taken a trip to Leadville, Colorado. From the latter place he crossed by trail to Salt Lake City. His ride over the mountains was marked in two instances, by hair-breadth escapes. After leaving Truckee Mr. Spier took advantage of a beautiful evening and spurred more than his usual gait, in the hope of reaching a small village that was convenient to the railroad track and about thirty miles from Truckee. His expectations were, however, blasted when he encountered one of those monstrous tunnels that are so numerous on the road in the vicinity of Truckee. It was tunnel No. 12, and as he got about half way through it his hair stood on end when the sharp whistle of an engine informed him of his imminent danger. The train of cars came thundering along and every moment seemed to him a decade. It was such dark in the tunnel. The bicyclist had but a brief moment to push himself and his machine as close to the wall's side as possible, when the locomotive and its detached train of cars swept past, leaving a space of about four inches between the silver wheel and the iron wheels. Spier made one continued run on his machine to Colfax, a distance of fifty-five miles.

At Tacoma, Nevada, his attention was attracted to where a number of sporting men were in dispute over the merits of two fighting dogs, which were determining a hardly contested battle. The difference of opinion ended with a general row, a dozen or more pistols were drawn, and before the world's long distance champion bicyclist could spurt out of the range of danger, half a dozen bullets went whizzing past him. The result of the melee was that one man was shot dead, and some others were very seriously wounded. The canines did not relinquish their hold during the fight between their owners and tanciers. The bicyclist, however, thought that part of the country exceedingly rough, and he did not wait to learn the outcome of the dog fight.

Mr. Spier left Sacramento on the morning of the 8th, and followed the track to Elmira. At noon, on Thursday, the 9th inst., he arrived at Benicia, where he took the ferryboat. From Benicia he rode over the wagon road to Pinole, to San Pablo, and from the latter place he made a fast run to Oakland. He reached this city at 9 o'clock on Thursday night last. Spier is at present stopping at the Baldwin Hotel, and intends making this city his future home, as he is much infatuated with our glorious climate.

As a long distance rider Spier is a celebrity. The following are some of his best records: Sixty miles in four hours, 116 miles in twelve hours and 300 miles in thirty-eight hours. The young man does not at all resemble an athlete who had just completed the great task of traversing the continent on wheels. Spier looks quite fresh, and to use his own words "the trip across the continent has given me no extra weight." Van Meerbeke looked completely worn out when he arrived in this city last Wednesday, after accomplishing his wonderful ride across the continent by way of New Orleans and Arizona. There is undoubtedly a great difference in the facial appearance of the two men. Van Meerbeke shows the effects of the sun, Spier's features are not even bronzed. Spier claims that during the entire trip he has not had one single header.

A STRONG TICKET.—The nominations by the recent Democratic State Convention at Elko constitute a good, strong, popular ticket, generally speaking, a fact which we Republicans should realize to the fullest extent, for it is certainly very detrimentally foolish to underestimate the strength of the enemy and get left on the proposition. The delegates elected in the primaries last Saturday can easily see that first and foremost they have to nominate a man who can beat Adams—the rest of the ticket is more easily disposed of.—Enterprise.

WILL HELP THE PARTY.

The Elko Free Press says: Senator J. P. Jones has signified his willingness to stand in and help the Republican party to the best of his ability this Fall. This is good news for the party in Nevada, for it means that our popular Senator will throw his influence and his magnetizing voice into the fight thereby aiding immensely the Republican cause all over the State. He is the most popular man in Nevada to-day, and a speech from him will do wonders, for every voter in the State is well aware that there is not a better posted man on all questions of the day, in the United States Senate than John P. Jones. When he talks to the people he always says something worth hearing; something that sets his hearers to thinking and pondering over what they have heard from the lips of this illustrious man. He is so well thought of, and the influence of his voice so thoroughly known in the Eastern States, that he was time and again invited to speak in Maine, and other States during the coming campaign, but to all he answered no. He wished, and thought it was his duty, to return to Nevada and lend his aid to the carrying of his State by his party.

During the campaign Senator Jones will speak in all the prominent towns in Nevada, including Austin, Eureka, Elko and Tuscarora.

New National Bank.

The Bulletin says: A telegram from Washington announces that the private bank of Crocker, Woolworth & Co., of this city, has become a National Bank with a capital of $1,000,000, and that it has been authorized to transact business under name of the Crocker, Woolworth & Co. National Bank. This is the first intimation the public has received that such a change was in contemplation. The private bank of Crocker, Woolworth & Co. was first opened for business about the 1st of June, 1883, being the latest enterprise of that character launched in this city. Mr. Crocker is the son of Chas. Crocker of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. R. C. Woolworth was formerly President of the First National Bank of this city, and resigned that position to engage in the above enterprise. The private bank of Crocker, Woolworth & Co. has had a large hue of business from the start, and has been a member of the San Francisco Clearing House. This is the second private bank of the city that has assumed corporate powers in the past few years, the other being that of Lazard Freres, now known as the London, Paris and American Bank. Another National Bank enterprise in this city has been before the people for some weeks under the name of the California National, with an authorized capital of $1,000,000. A Board of Directors has been selected and officers chosen, but the bank has not been formally opened for business, though an announcement of that kind is daily expected.
